

When the Kids Aren't Watching: Making the Most of Your Marriage

Stef Standefer, LPC
Alexian Brothers Interfaith Parish Support Services

Tuesday, November 17, 2009
9:00-10:30am
Parish Life Center (Enter Door 2)

In the midst of our busy lives with children, it's not always easy to find time for ourselves – let alone our marriages. Stef will talk about the importance of maintaining the relationship between husband and wife, and how good marriages just “don't happen” but rely on some key factors. As a counselor to families, couples and children, Stef's entertaining style will instantly put you at ease with this timely topic.

Come join us ... with the holiday rush almost here,
this is a perfect gift to give yourself!
