Cybersmarts:

Texting, Sexting and Cyberbullying

Detective Richard Wistocki

Naperville Police Department

Det. Wistocki's involvement in high profile cases and key legislation makes him one of the most sought-after speakers in this critical area. Hear important NEW information about what kids are doing on their cell phones and online, and learn how to keep them safe in our evolving world. If you haven't heard Det. Wistocki speak, you need to be here. If you have heard him before, you know you can't afford to miss this critical update!

Tuesday, October 26

Boo!

Helping Your Child Face Their Fears & Phobias

Stef Standefer, MA, LPC

Alexian Brothers Interfaith Parish Support Services

There are so many fears that kids struggle with today, from things that go bump in the night, loud noises, big dogs and spiders to worries about meeting new people, taking tests, not fitting in, separating from mom or dad, and war. Stef is a counselor, parent and entertaining speaker who will help us learn how to develop coping strategies for our children so they feel safer and stronger ... and we feel calmer, too!

Tuesday, December 7

Keep the Siblings/Lose the Rivalry

Dr. Todd Cartmell

Summit Clinical Services, Wheaton

Tired of arguing, name-calling and tattling between your otherwise adorable children? Dr. Cartmell is a local clinical psychologist who works exclusively with children, adolescents and families, and he's got great wisdom to share! An author of numerous books on parenting and a popular speaker around the country, his humor-laced talk will guide you through a three-part process for building close sibling relationships, teaching valuable "living together" skills and making sure that respectful sibling behavior is the only thing that pays off!

Tuesday, February 8
